Coming in JANUARY

The "Follow Me" Challenge – Beginning January 5

Following Jesus is not for the fainthearted. It's an all-or-nothing proposition and requires everything we have. But Jesus shows us the way and promises to provide God's Spirit to help us. Each day during this 50-day journey, we will have an opportunity to hear the very words of Jesus and then be challenged with a specific action to put those words into practice. Join us as we actively respond to Jesus' call to "Follow Me."

Wednesday Night Classes – Beginning January 8

Starting Point: A Conversation About Faith

Taught by Mark Hackney & John Knox in the Worship Center

Everything has a beginning. Every person, every idea, every journey starts somewhere. Whether it's one small step in a new direction or a catalyst that ignites a spark, it's a moment when, from this point forward, nothing will ever be the same. Join us for this 8-week class as we explore the concept of faith and how it affects our daily lives.

Biblical Literacy: A Survey of the Old Testament

Taught by Rus Hooper in Room 14 (Climbers classroom)

Have you ever wondered how the books of the Bible fit together as a whole? Are there parts of the Bible that are unfamiliar or difficult for you to understand? Each week, participants in this class will receive an overview of a book of the Bible (beginning with the Old Testament) and get to know Scripture in its historical, literary, and theological contexts. Weekly handouts are included. This course will continue through the end of May, with plans for a New Testament survey to follow.
