Exciting News From Cambodia!

Julie Broyles, our mission partner in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, recently shared the following news with us.

Finally, our new students are here! We are thrilled! They are already joining in and having so much fun.

Can you imagine teaching creation to someone who has no idea who God is? Can you imagine what you would think if you started learning about Noah and a flood, Sarah having a child when she was beyond child-bearing years, the Nile turning into blood, the Red Sea opening up, water coming out of a rock, Jonah being swallowed by a big fish? It is no wonder that it all seems pretty far-fetched for a while.

Please pray for these young adults, as they begin their studies at their universities (online right now), but especially for soft, open hearts as they hear God's Word and begin to have a dawning, that God's plan then, is for them now!

More Beautiful Than Diamonds

What is it about a diamond that causes people to desire it above all other gems? A primary reason is the way it sparkles. Light enters the translucent stone and bounces off the various facets like a hall of mirrors, creating a bright, dazzling reflection. The key to a diamond's sparkle is the precision with which the faces of the stone are cut and polished.

God's Word, like a diamond, has many facets that brilliantly reflect the light of His character. Its beauty shines from each feature that is fashioned with care by His own hand, penetrating our souls and transforming our lives. Our desire to know and obey His Word will grow as our understanding and appreciation of these various dimensions increase.

A good place to begin is to study and meditate on Psalm 119, where the psalmist gives us a glimpse of the multi-faceted nature of God's Word. He states that the Word of the Lord is true, boundless, wonderful, righteous, trustworthy, and eternal. It brings joy, insight, peace, delight, and comfort. It stands firm, teaches knowledge and good judgment, inspires awe, makes us wise, sustains us, directs our footsteps, and preserves life. It is sweeter than honey and more precious than silver and gold. Each description in this psalm provides a window into the heart of God and enhances the sparkle and beauty of the priceless gem of His Word.

I'm reminded of these song lyrics written by Lynn DeShazo several years ago:

*Lord, You are more precious than silver,
Lord, You are more costly than gold.
Lord, You are more beautiful than diamonds,
And nothing I desire compares with You.*

May these words be a reflection of our love for God and His Word.

Come, let us bow down in worship,
let us kneel before the Lord our Maker;
for he is our God
and we are the people of his pasture,
the flock under his care.

Psalm 95:6-7
