Announcements

Carter BloodCare will be receiving donors in the Fellowship Center on Sunday, April 18, from 8:30am-12:30pm. You may make an appointment ahead of time at https://ww3.greatpartners.org/donor/schedules/drive_schedule/121177 or stop by and donate as a walk-in on that day. Due to the critical shortage of blood, there will be twice the number of stations available than usual, so please plan to come and give the gift of life.

Piecemakers Quilting Bee will begin meeting again on the LAST Monday of each month, beginning April 26, from 10:00am to 2:00pm in Room 8 at the church building. Bring your sewing machine and accessories, and we will provide the fabric. Also, bring a lunch, as we will pause around noon to eat. For more information, contact Betty Curbo (817-573-7535) or Jamie Skelton (817-279-3724).

New Life

It seems appropriate somehow that, at least in our part of the world, the anniversary of Christ's resurrection comes in the spring, since both are synonymous with new life. This year, spring is a welcome sight after the frigid, record-breaking winter storm a few weeks ago. The tree branches are filled with fresh, new leaves, and the rolling hills are blanketed with bright wildflowers and green grass. The world around us is warm and beautiful once again.

Maybe you too have suffered from a recent winter storm in your life, spiritually speaking. Perhaps you feel overwhelmed and beaten down by people and circumstances beyond your control (like the isolation of a year-long pandemic), or even problems of your own making, and you are here today in search of a fresh start and a new perspective. You need healing and renewal.

With these thoughts in mind, it is our hope and prayer that you will join with us today in celebration and worship of the One who provides new life, both physically and spiritually. Allow His entrance into your heart so that He can transform you and make your life beautiful once again.

Shepherds of God

Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care...

1 Peter 5:2

There is a paradox inherent in leadership. The more we attempt to control people, the less control we have over them. Those who rule with a heavy hand, issuing edicts from on high, then sitting back to critique the labor of their subjects, will soon find rebellion and desertion among the ranks. However, those who lead by rolling up their sleeves and joining the work force will win the loyalty and respect of their followers. In 1 Peter 5:1-11, we see that Peter understood this principle when he urged elders to be "...eager to serve, not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock" (vs. 2-3).

In Hebrews 13, the author exhorts us to remember, imitate, and submit to leaders who work among us. The fact that they serve alongside us and lead by example does not give us the right to disregard their authority over us. We must not forget the grave responsibility they have to watch over us and be accountable to God for our spiritual well-being. So, as the Hebrews writer commands, let us "...obey them so that their work will be a joy, not a burden..." (13:17).

Prayer for Today: Lord, thank you for the leaders You have appointed to keep watch over our souls. Help us to be a crown on their head, not a thorn in their side, as we all strive to accomplish Your purposes on this earth. In the name of the Chief Shepherd we pray. Amen.
