

A Temple Legacy

Psalm 27: 4 One thing I ask from the Lord,
this only do I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
to gaze on the beauty of the Lord
and to seek him in his temple.

John 2: 19 Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days.”...21 But the temple he had spoken of was his body.

1 Corinthians 6: 19 For we are the temple of the living God.

1 Chronicles 22: Then David said, “The house of the Lord God is to be here, and also the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”

2 So David gave orders to assemble the foreigners residing in Israel, and from among them he appointed stonecutters to

1 Chronicles 22: prepare dressed stone for building the house of God. 3 He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, and more bronze than could be weighed. 4 He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, for the Sidonians and Tyrians

1 Chronicles 22: had brought large numbers of them to David.

5 David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the Lord should be of great magnificence and fame and splendor in the sight of all the nations.

1 Chronicles 22: Therefore I will make preparations for it.” So David made extensive preparations before his death.

David provided for a future
he would never see in his lifetime.

Faith is being compelled to act on behalf of tomorrow's glory

because of today's grace.

Hebrews 11: 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob
and Esau in regard to their future.

Hebrews 11: 1 Faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.

Faith is not “hoping for the best”.

It is confidence in a certain future.

When faith bows to fear,
giving hearts disappear.

Had David based his decision
on preparation upon future
realities,
he might have rescinded.

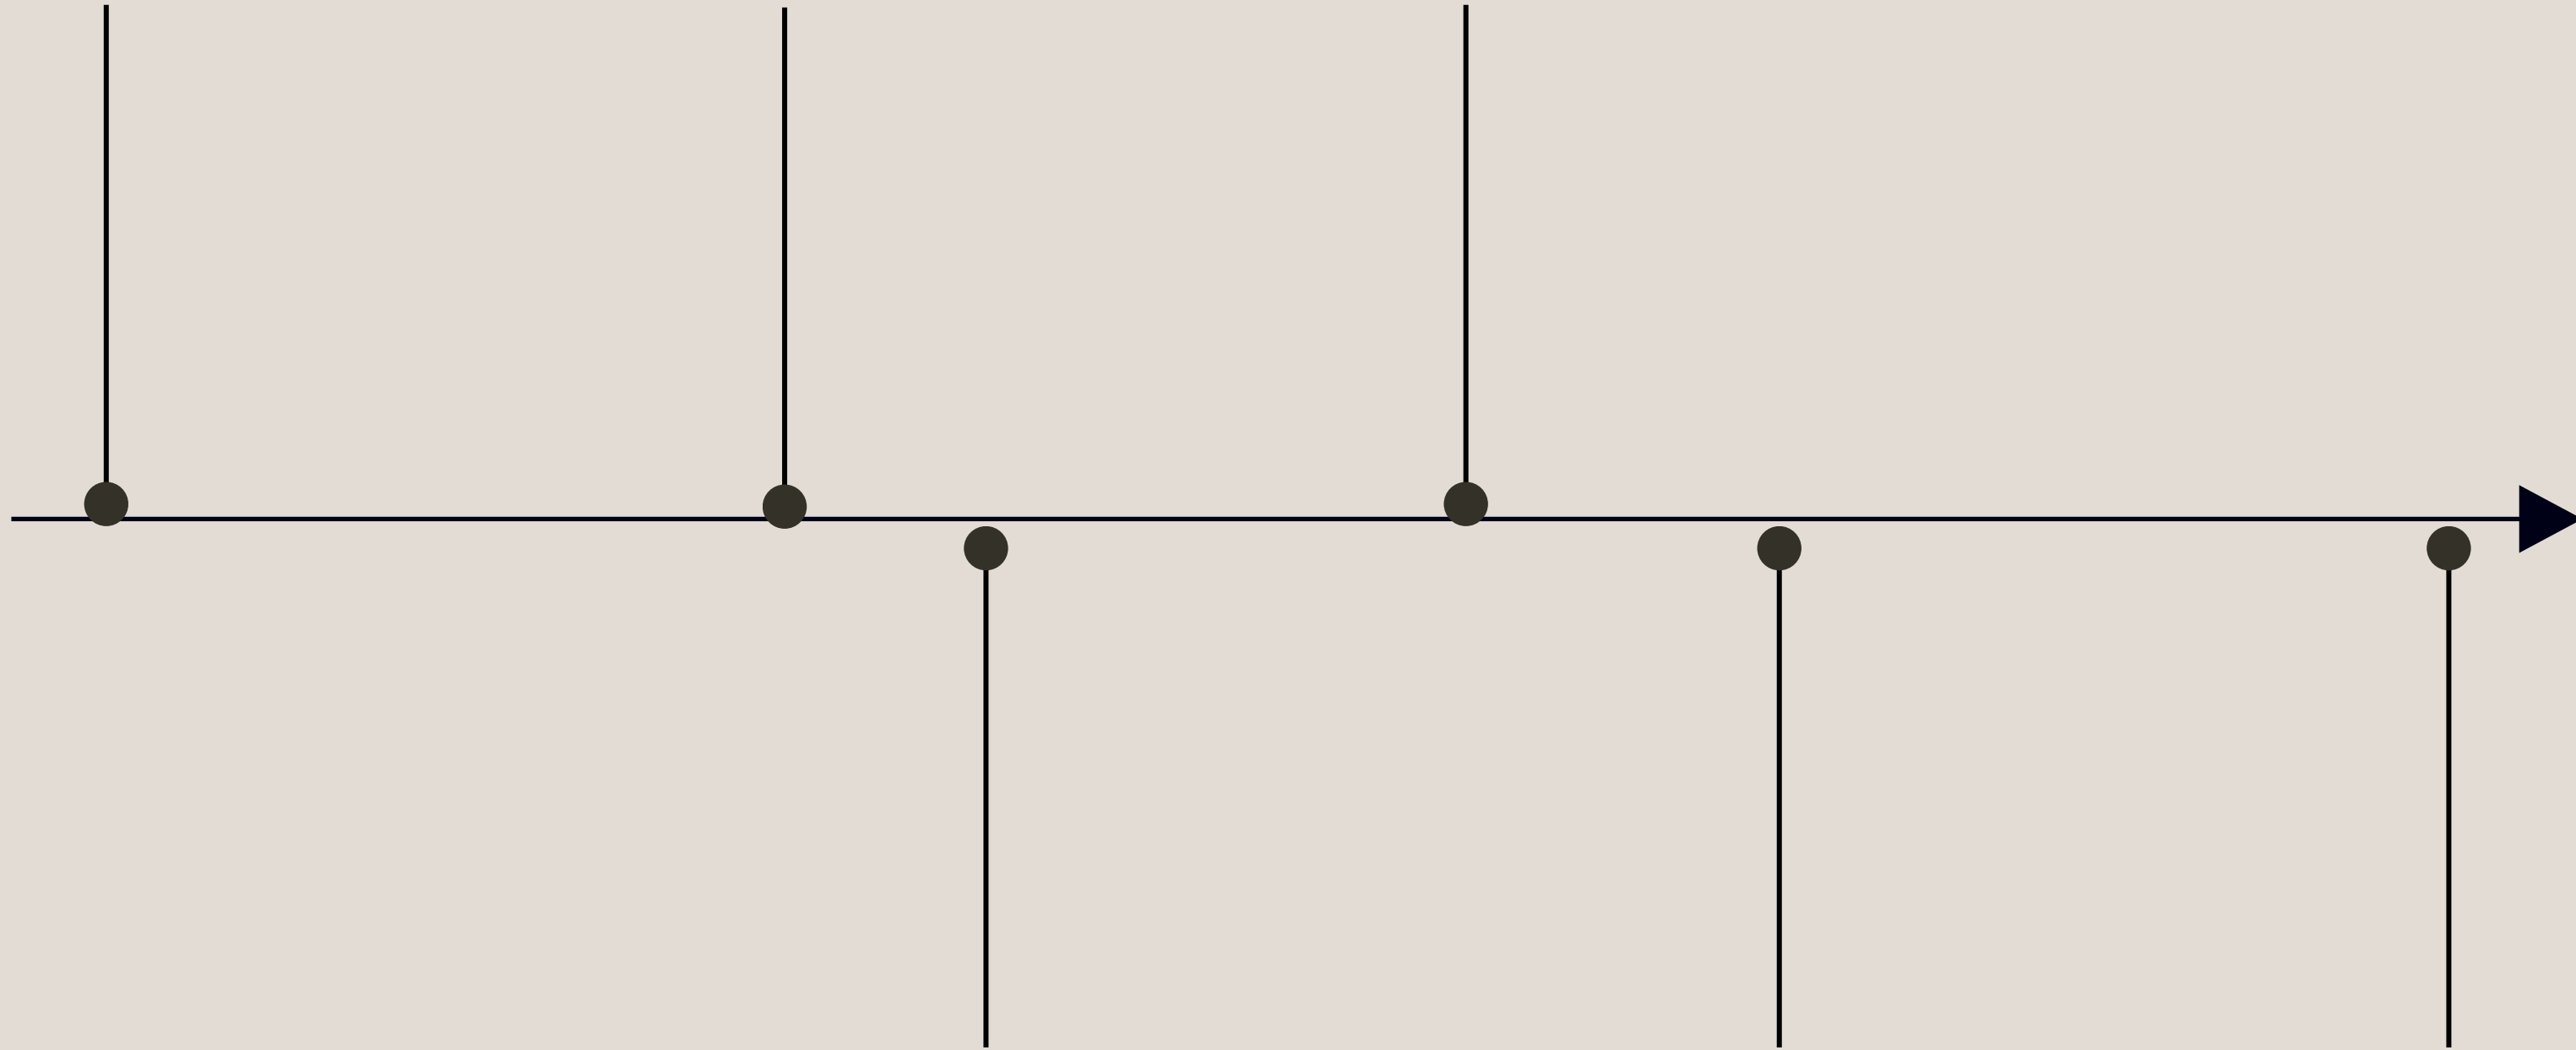

Matthew 13: 44 “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

45 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. 46 When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.

Faith does not make sense to a world unfamiliar with God's future.

Faith is investing in a promise
you will not see fulfilled.

When you invest in God's house for tomorrow,
God will invest in your house
today.

2 Samuel 11: 7 “The Lord declares to you that the Lord himself will establish a house for you: 12 When your days are over and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, your own flesh and blood, and I will establish his kingdom. 13 He is the one who will build a house for my Name...
