If God's Kingdom is secondary to your _____, our prayers are fueled only by requests for _____.

If you only praise God after the victory, you're praising the _____ - not _____.

Prayer is not designed to change God's mind but _____.

The beating heart of David's kingdom was a _____ for prayer in the _____ of Jerusalem.

God always welcomes your prayers, but He is deeply _____ by prayers that _____ all else through "Thy Kingdom come."

Too often Christians choose to pursue _____ lives instead of lives that make a _____.

Disciples who make a difference pray "Thy Kingdom Come, thy will be done" first, then _____ upon the Lord.
