Mark 10: 17 As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. “Good teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

18 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good—except God alone.

Mark 10: 19 You know the commandments:
‘You shall not murder, you shall not
commit adultery, you shall not steal, you
shall not give false testimony, you shall not defraud, honor your father and mother.’”

20 “Teacher,” he declared, “all these I have kept since I was a boy.”

Mark 10: 21 Jesus looked at him and loved him. “One thing you lack,” he said. “Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

Mark 10: 22 At this the man's face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth. 23 Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!"

RON HALL &
DENVER MOORE
WITH LYNN VINCENT

Mr. Ron, I was captive in the devil's prison. That was easy for Miss Debbie to see. But I got to tell you: Many folks had seen me behind the bars in that prison for more than thirty years, and they just walked on by.

Kept their keys in their pocket and left me locked up. Now I ain't tryin to run them other folks down, 'cause I was not a nice fella-dangerous-and prob'ly
just as happy to stay in prison.
But Miss Debbie was different--

she seen me behind them bars
and reached way down in her pocket and pulled out the keys God gave her and used one to unlock the prison.

Being likable is in our control. Being likable means you have to be first Liker. If you set out to like more people, you become more likable...what makes us likable is just liking as many people as possible.

Principle:

Good and Evil both increase at compound interest.

Matthew 25: 20 And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more.' 21 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.'

Matthew 25: 29 For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

Little decisions we make carry the weight of eternity.

The smallest good act today may bear the fruit of Godliness tomorrow.

Mark 10: 19 You know the commandments:
‘You shall not murder, you shall not
commit adultery, you shall not steal, you
shall not give false testimony, you shall not
defraud, honor your father and mother.’”

20 “Teacher,” he declared, “all these I

Mark 10: 21 Jesus looked at him and loved him. “One thing you lack,” he said. “Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

1 Peter 1: 15 But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; 16 for it is written: “Be holy, because I am holy.”

1 Peter 1: 15 But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; 16 for it is written: “Be holy, because I am holy.”

22 Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply, from the heart.

A Christian is kind and loving to everyone on account of Christ.

The result

is compound interest in love.

How Jesus had compound interest in love:

(1). He looked (blepo-considered)
at him (vv. 21)

Determine (say aloud) to love

Let negative emotions run their course

Insert compassion

How Jesus had compound interest
in love:

(2). He knew God's love preceded his own.

1 John 4:19 We love because he first loved us.
