Numbers 21: 4 They traveled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, to go around Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way; 5 they spoke against God and against Moses, and said, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!”

Numbers 21: 6 Then the Lord sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died. 7 The people came to Moses and said, “We sinned when we spoke against the Lord and against you. Pray that the Lord will take the snakes away from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

Numbers 21: 8 The Lord said to Moses,
“Make a snake and put it up on a pole;
anyone who is bitten can look at it and live.” 9 So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, they lived.

John 3: 14 Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, 15 that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him.”

A psychological truth: If you look at what you're terrified of,
you'll become braver.

Who are you at the cross?

I've denied Christ

I've betrayed Christ

I don't want to be anywhere near Christ.

I hate Jesus.

I need proof to believe in Christ.

What is truth?

My child is gone.

*God, why have you
forsaken me?*

The cross is where we face God together. It's an image of what we've become.

God is sovereign!

What's your snake?

How are you dealing with
it/them?

The cross teaches us that the only way to deal with our problems is the face them and see the love of God in them.

Romans 8: 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

Romans 8: 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God
that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
